Solomon S. Cua

We look ahead and see great possibilities.

When we broaden our horizons, we see more opportunities and choices ahead. The year 2021 was that opening we at Charter Ping An Insurance Corporation needed in order to see beyond the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Philippines ended the year with a three-year high, above-target inflation rate of 4.5%, but not without showing signs that we were on the road to positive growth. Unemployment rate eased to 6.5%, from an all-time high of 17.7% the previous year. We registered a Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth rate of 5.6% way beyond the target.

And what would the year be for our economy without the contribution of our modernday heroes? As Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) were redeployed, they brought in remittances amounting to $34.88 billion in 2021–an all-time high exceeding the previous record of $33.47 billion before the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite the circumstances, OFW remittances also grew from $33.19 billion in 2020, registering a 5.1% growth.

Protection takes the lead

It was clear that even as the economy was revitalized, protection still remained a priority for consumers. For the full year, the insurance industry's total net income grew by 32% year-on-year, while total premium income rose by 25%. The net income of the non-life sector, in particular, grew by 6.7% to P5.5 billion from 2020's P5.1 billion. Indeed, we learned a truly important lesson from the pandemic: being prepared is always key to facing future challenges.

But aside from the pandemic, natural disasters are also a continuously growing threat, with the Philippines expected to incur an average of $3.5 billion in asset loss each year from typhoons and earthquakes alone, with 74% of the population exposed to several natural hazards. The importance of building resilience and improving protection against these disasters through general insurance cannot be emphasized enough.

What proved to be helpful was that consumers became more open to using digital technology. With products and services such as insurance made easily accessible and convenient to purchase through online channels, Filipinos were inclined to look at protection as an absolute necessity.

As these opportunities opened, we responded by continuing to focus on innovation so we could respond to the changing needs of our client base. We believed that Filipinos can emerge from this pandemic and we showed them that we would be there every step of the way.

Our purpose:

Be a force for human progress

So many things have changed, but what remained constant was our purpose: acting for human progress by protecting what matters. Notwithstanding a global pandemic and all the obstacles that came with it, we forged on by supporting our clients, igniting passion among our employees, and doing our part to empower every Filipino to face today's major challenges.

We did it by leveraging our capabilities, most important of which are resilience and agility, so we could focus on our core business: protection. We knew it was only by doing so that we could continue to serve Filipinos no matter their stature in life, wherever they are, and whatever they are doing. As a leader and innovator, we are capable of providing solutions suited to their needs, while protecting their lives and their properties in the process.

On our horizon, we see insurance continuing to act as a force for progress. In 2021, this guided us in the fight to survive the pandemic and thrive in its midst. It helped us see what else needs to be done in our continuing journey and defined the path that lies ahead.

Rahul Hora

Let our wins inspire us, and our dreams lift us up.

The year 2021 tested us beyond measure, yet Charter Ping An Insurance Corporation was proud to be of service as one of the leading general insurers in the Philippines, offering a wide range of insurance products and services through a growing network across the country.

This extremely challenging time brought us rewards that we are eager to share with you. We remained one of the country's largest and fastest growing insurance companies in the country, helping close to two million Filipinos secure their financial future. In fact, according to data released by the Insurance Commission, we rose to number two in total premium income with P38.9 billion. At the same time, we maintained our market share at 12.6%.

Despite challenges on the general insurance side of our business, we saw that what Charter Ping An was still able to deliver also contributed to our overall brand strength. Our Brand Tracking Study showed that AXA is number two in top-of-mind awareness and a strong number one in overall consideration and intention to buy. Our Net Promoter Score also rose from number three in 2020, to number two in 2021, which is nine points above competitive market average.

With quarantine restrictions easing gradually in 2021, people's mobility stepped up as they found ways to observe the new normal. With motorists back on the road and travelers slowly populating tourist destinations, the focus we have put on our car insurance offer made the difference and our travel insurance picked up as well, with both lines being re-energized.

Awards also poured in, starting with our citation for good corporate governance from the ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard's Golden Arrow Awards. Charter Ping An was recognized with the Most Improved Company award. This is proof of the company's commitment to better compliance and service to customers through enhanced corporate governance standards and practices.

Insurance Asia also named us International General Insurer of the Year (Philippines) and cited our mobile app Emma by AXA PH as Mobile App of the Year (Philippines).

These accomplishments prove that we took to heart our noble purpose of serving our customers. We continued to offer Rescue Line through the Emma by AXA PH app, providing motorists and commuters free round-the-clock access to emergency response such as roadside assistance, police, and ambulance services. With just a few taps, emergency contacts are immediately notified of the situation and the current location using a geotag feature.

Through the Emma by AXA PH app, we also made general insurance products accessible to customers. Aside from travel and car insurance, customers could avail of property insurance products to protect residences in the event of natural and unexpected disasters like fire, flood, earthquake, storms, and volcanic eruptions.

In fact, right before 2021 came to a close, Typhoon Odette hit the country, and a lot of Filipinos in Visayas and Mindanao were tremendously affected. This generated much impact on our general insurance business as well, but we remained committed to our customers and processed a total of 292 claims amounting to P156.8 million.

To ensure that the underserved have access to insurance protection, we partnered with Cebuana Lhuillier and the German Development Cooperation / Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zussamenarbeit GmbH (GIZ) to launch MicroBiz Protek Jr., an affordable microinsurance product to insure local businesses against typhoons, floods, earthquake, lightning, and fire.

We understand that the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic are far from over.

But being able to celebrate our wins and hope for better things to come is an important step in Charter Ping An's journey to recovery. In 2021, we banked on our capability to use digital technology and create innovative protection solutions, while being present for our customers at every point of contact. It may be a new reality we are living in, but we are armed with many lessons, the most valuable of which is that we can dream bigger for our future and enable progress not just for the company, but more importantly, for our stakeholders.

Independent Auditor's Report

The Board of Directors and Stockholders Charter Ping An Insurance Corporation

OPINION

We have audited the financial statements of Charter Ping An Insurance Corporation (the Company), which comprise the statements of financial position as at December 31, 2021 and 2021, and the statements of comprehensive income, statements of changes in equity and statements of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2021 and 2021, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRSs).

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audits in accordance with Philippine Standards on Auditing (PSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants in the Philippines (Code of Ethics) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the Philippines, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with PFRSs, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with PSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with PSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.
- If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
