MARKET COMMENTARY

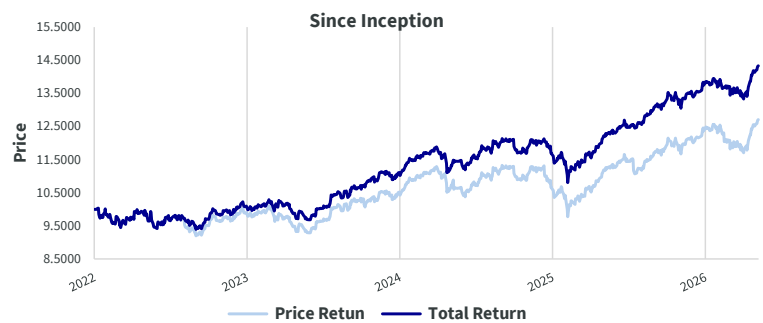

Global stocks and bonds saw a strong rebound in April amid a fragile ceasefire between the U.S. and Iran, which helped prevent further energy infrastructure damage but kept Strait of Hormuz shipping at a standstill, disrupting supply chains. U.S. economic data showed resilience, with Q1 GDP growing 2% driven by AI-fueled business investment, low unemployment claims, and robust corporate earnings—84% of S&P 500 companies beat estimates with an average surprise of +12.3%. However, rising gasoline prices increased inflationary pressures, prompting the Fed to hold interest rates steady amid policy uncertainties. Despite geopolitical tensions, earnings forecasts for the S&P 500 were raised to +18.6%, reflecting strong corporate performance and optimism for the remainder of the year.

Since the target fund is USD-denominated, the return of this peso share class fund was significantly higher than that of its dollar share class as the Philippine peso weakened against the US dollar.
