MARKET COMMENTARY

REITs fell in June as the FTSE Nareit All Equity REITs Index narrowly declined, underperforming the broader stock market for the month. Non-REIT stocks benefitted more from the market recovery from easing tariff disputes as mega-cap equities led the rebound in upward momentum. This brings the index to 1.8% total return for the year, compared to 6.2% and 5.7% for the S&P 500 and Dow Jones indices respectively. With the hawkish from the US Federal Reserve on rate cuts as of late, the REITs market has fallen behind broader equities. The dividend yield on the FTSE Nareit All Equity REITs Index leads however at 3.95% as of June 30, with the S&P 500 at 1.2%. On the sector level, Office led for the month with a 4.4% return, followed by Specialty at 3.8%, then Gaming at 3.5%.
